Technical Requirements and Assistance

In this course, you need a valid TTU email address, audio and video capabilities (webcam) on your computer, tablet, or phone, and internet access. Incomplete submission of assignments due to loss of internet connection will not be accepted. Please note that the library computers are available in case of technical difficulties with your computer. For Blackboard courses, Chrome is the recommended browser. During our face-to-face class meetings, we will discuss each week's respective content. Also, for this course, students will need access to technology for use during classtime for quizzes and activities.

IT Help Central is available to assist with eRaider sign-in problems, browser errors, and other technical difficulties you may encounter. For technical assistance, please contact IT Help Central at 806-742-HELP, email that at ithelpcentral@ttu.edu, or visit the IT Help Central website at www.ithelpcentral.ttu.edu. For student assistance with Blackboard, visit the Blackboard Student Support website at <http://bit.ly/1HLFh8A>

If Texas Tech University campus operations are required to change because of health concerns related to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is possible that this course will move to a fully online delivery format. Asynchronous delivery will be used. Should that be necessary, students will be advised of technical and/or equipment requirements of a microphone and webcam, including remote proctoring software.

TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY CLASSROOM POLICIES

Illness-related Absences: (COVID-19 related): Students who are isolating with COVID-19 and students who are quarantining for symptoms or direct exposure may be granted extended days of absence, dependant on instructor's approval. Proof of COVID-19 illness or exposure must be sent to instructor immediately up illness or exposure. Makeup opportunities will be provided in a reasonable time frame, and will be left up to the instructor's discretion. No Zoom opportunities will be available. Students are responsible for keeping up with class lectures while absent by following the syllabus and powerpoints available on Blackboard. Extra notes can be retrieved from a classmate.

Students can refer to the guidance for students at <https://ttucovid19.ttu.edu/User/Consent> for more information regarding COVID guidelines.

If Texas Tech University campus operations are required to change because of health concerns related to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is possible that this course will move to a fully online delivery format. Should that be necessary, students will need to have access to a PC or Mac desktop or laptop. You will be accessing links to the internet, using Microsoft Word, and downloading documents. For all Blackboard courses, Chrome is the recommended browser. You will also need a webcam and microphone (presumably on your computer, tablet, or phone) for our class meetings & office hours for this course.

BEFORE READING THE NEXT SECTION, PLEASE MAKE SURE YOU HAVE READ AND UNDERSTAND TEXAS TECH UNIVERSITY'S CLASSROOM POLICY ABOVE

STUDENT EXPECTATIONS

Attendance & Participation

- a. Punctuality and class attendance are required for success in this course. Like the working world, you must show up and put forth effort to be a successful working professional.! Students are allowed 2 free unexcused absences. All unexcused absences beyond 2, will result in a deduction of 5 points each from your grade point total.
- b. It is expected that every student will be on time for each class and remain for the entire class. Unless there is a medical or personal emergency, you should not leave the classroom during class as it is distracting & you will miss valuable information. Students arriving more than 15 minutes late to class will not be allowed into class and will be counted absent.
- c. To adhere to university COVID-19 guidelines, students will be given an assigned seat on the first day of class and must sit in that seat for every class meeting thereafter.

Class attendance will be factored into any decisions regarding extra credit at the end of the semester. As noted in the Grading Policy, grades are not automatically rounded at the end of the semester so it is possible that attendance may factor into any grade-rounding decisions but is not a guarantee. NOTE: Any student who has excessive absences (5 or more) with no notification to the instructor will be referred to the Dean's Office. Students with more than 8 absences will fail the course. Remember, each unexcused absence beyond 2, will result in a 5 point deduction from grade point total.

It is imperative that students read and understand Texas Tech's Illness-Based Policy below to obtain the opportunity to make-up any missed work. All policies below are left up to Instructor's discretion as to implementation.

Spring 2022 University COVID Guidelines

- Face coverings, although optional, are recommended and welcome; students, faculty, and staff who wish to wear them are encouraged to do so. Instructors of record may encourage (but not require) their classes to wear face masks.

- Texas Tech University strongly recommends students adhere to CDC guidelines on COVID-19, including obtaining COVID-19 vaccinations. If you were unable to obtain a vaccination prior to your arrival on campus, the COVID-19 vaccine is available at Student Health Services by appointment. You can find additional information about the vaccine and campus vaccine clinics here. On-campus COVID-19 testing locations re-opened on January 4. We will have a vaccination clinic hosted by United Supermarkets on January 7, and beginning January 14, we will have vaccination clinics hosted by TDEM on Fridays. All testing and vaccination sites are open to students, faculty and staff. We have also updated the COVID-19 website and resumed daily reporting on our COVID-19 dashboard of all new cases and recoveries.
- Generally, student absences due to illness are to be considered as they were prior to the pandemic, with consideration given to the fact that students who are isolating with COVID-19 and students who are quarantining for symptoms or direct exposure may have extended days of absence. Make-up opportunities should be provided in a reasonable timeframe. Direct students to the guidance for students at the COVID-19 page (<https://www.depts.ttu.edu/communications/emergency/coronavirus/>).
- Students who test positive for COVID-19 are to report the diagnosis at <https://ttucovid19.ttu.edu/User/Consent>. Doing so will generate a letter that students may present to their instructors as documentation in support of absences and will also trigger notification to the Dean of Students office, which in turn will notify the student's dean's office.
- Students who directly inform their instructors of having a known exposure to a COVID-19 positive person should be directed by the instructor to contact Student Health Services at 806-743-2848. Instructors who receive this guidance should refer to the guidance on students who report a positive result.
- There is no expectation that courses scheduled as face-to-face must provide an online option to students who report testing positive for COVID-19 or who are isolating or quarantining for exposure to someone with COVID-19. However, plans should be made to provide remote options or makeup opportunities in case instructors or students test positive or must quarantine during final exams or scheduled defenses.
- Consistent with the latest CDC recommendations, we have revised our guidance for students, faculty and staff who have a known exposure or tested positive. Anyone with a known exposure should wear a mask for 10 days and should seek a COVID-19 test on day five after exposure. If you test positive or develop symptoms, you should immediately self-isolate and seek a COVID-19 test. Anyone who tests positive is required to self-isolate for five days. Following the five-day isolation period, if you are asymptomatic or your symptoms are resolving, you may return to work but should wear a mask for five additional days. All positive tests should be reported through our campus reporting system.
- Faculty and staff should prepare for the possibility that a rapid pivot to online instruction may be required. Advise students (e.g., in the course syllabus) of technical and equipment requirements, such as web cam, microphone, and remote proctoring software, should a temporary or longer pivot be necessary.

Attendance & Participation

All students with SDS accommodations must present these to the instructor on or before the first day of classes.

IMPORTANT NOTE

While this course is meeting face-to-face a portion of course assessments (assignments, quizzes, etc.) will be completed and submitted via Blackboard. In the hopeful unlikely event that there is a glitch in the Blackboard online system, students are always responsible for reviewing the due dates in the schedule on this syllabus that I have provided. Please ALWAYS double check the syllabus and schedule for the due dates and times. If you notice a difference in what you see on Blackboard vs. what is on the syllabus, please let me know ASAP but the syllabus will always be the main point of reference.

University Required Syllabus information that be necessary, students will be advised of technical and equipment requirements, such as web cam, microphone, and remote proctoring software.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY & PROFESSIONALISM IN THE CLASSROOM & OUT OF THE CLASSROOM

To be respectful to your fellow classmates & Instructor, please put cell phones, bluetooth equipment, headphones, or any other electronics away & muted before class begins. Students will be allowed to use tablets and/or laptops for class purposes if the volume is muted & it does not become a distraction to other classmates and/or Instructor. Please note, the instructor reserves the right to ban the use of laptops/tablets in class if necessary or remove a student from the face-to-face class meeting if behavior, actions, or settings are deemed inappropriate. Also, students are encouraged to take notes based on lectures as the PowerPoint slides will not contain all the information that will be present on exams and participate in every class discussion.

Students are always expected to act in a professional manner while interacting with myself and others. Such behavior (as listed below – plagiarism, cheating, etc. included) will be addressed on a case-by-case basis and could result in point deductions from grades and/or a case filed with the Student Conduct Office.

If applicable, students are expected to maintain an online environment conducive to learning, which includes “netiquette” (Internet etiquette). The following site includes basic rules for Online Discussion Netiquette. Ensure that your e-mail messages, discussion board postings, and other electronic communications are thoughtful. The following are prohibited:

- making offensive remarks in e-mail or the discussion board
- using inappropriate language or discussing inappropriate topics online
- spamming,
- hacking,
- using TTU or Blackboard e-mail or discussion board for commercial purposes
- using all caps (considered shouting in online communications)
- cyber-bullying or online harassment of any type

Course Requirements

1. Punctuality and class attendance are required in this course. Please be respectful by being on time for each class and remaining through the entire class. Leaving class early without permission will count as an unexcused absence. Attendance will be taken at random times during class. Tardiness (more than 10 minutes late) will not be tolerated. Each tardy after 3, will count as an unexcused absence. Classroom doors will be locked at 11:15am and students will not be allowed to enter after 11:15am. If you are sick, it is your responsibility to inform the professor electronically via email at least an hour prior to the start of class; bring a copy of doctor's note to the next class attendance, or if virtual visit was done, follow the protocol in the 'Illness Based Absence Policy'. Late notes will not be accepted. 5 or more unexcused absences will be considered excessive and will be reported to the Dean of Students. If you have more than eight unexcused absences, you will receive an F in this course. . COVID-19 related illness must be reported to the instructor and the Office of the Dean of Students

Unexcused Absence: Absences that the professor deems non-excusable. Examples include: absences without documentation to support University-Approved activities or illnesses, taking a friend to the doctor, oversleeping, flat tire, my dog was lost, etc.

Excused Absences: Absences due to illness (as stated in the 'Illness Based Absence Policy', attendance due to University approved activity, documented family emergency. All excused absences must be supported by official documentation. Students are responsible for contacting the instructor prior to absence in order to be eligible for make-up work. Documentation falsification of any kind will not be tolerated and will be reported to the Dean of Students and possibly failure of the class.

2. Check for Understanding Assignments (referred to as CfU throughout syllabus): (20 points each)— You are required to respond to questions on the assignment reading(s) for all topics. Questions are provided for each of the topics listed below. Your responses will be graded based on their completeness demonstrating your understanding of the question and grammatical correctness.
- Your response shows an understanding of at least one key point from each of the associated topics/lectures.
 - Your response used at least one specific example or noteworthy piece of information learned from each topic/lecture

Topical Areas- Check for Understanding (CfU)	Deadlines for Completing Questions

8. Extra credit opportunities: Extra credit opportunities will be announced in class. Several in class activities will count for extra credit. You must bring notebook paper and a pen or pencil to class every day for in class assignments.

Additional Information

1. Cap policy: Caps may be worn during class time. However, all caps must be removed or turned backwards during exams. No hoodies may be pulled over student’s head at any time during class or exams.
2. This class will be organized to combine lectures using PowerPoint slides as an outline, whole-class discussions, small-group discussions during class, in class activities and assignments. Note taking is required since there will be additional comments made during lecture which will not be on the slides.
3. No ‘meal type’ food (burgers, burritos, fries, etc.) is allowed in class. Instructor approved snacks are allowed. Drinks with lids are acceptable.

4. You are expected to adhere to the highest standards of academic honesty, with academic integrity a requirement of this class. Written assignments must be completed individually, unless specified otherwise. Receiving help from the University Writing Center with your written assignments is encouraged. Plagiarism occurs when a student uses or purchases papers or reports written by someone else, including downloading from the Internet. It also occurs when a student utilizes the ideas of or information obtained from another person without giving credit to that person. Any time you quote from another person, you must give credit to this person by providing a complete citation for the source and page number for the source from which you quoted. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty occurs, you will receive a zero on that assignment. If you cheat on an exam, you will receive a zero on that exam. Acts of plagiarism and/or academic dishonesty are subject to being reported to Office of Student Conduct and risk academic penalty.

USE OF TECHNOLOGY & PROFESSIONALISM IN THE CLASSROOM & OUT OF THE CLASSROOM

To be respectful to your fellow classmates & Instructor, please put cell phones, Bluetooth equipment, headphones, or any other electronics away & muted before class begins. Students will be allowed to use tablets and/or laptops for class purposes if the volume is muted & it does not become a distraction to other classmates and/or instructor. Any student who, because of a disability, may require special arrangements in order to meet the course requirements should contact the instructor as soon as possible to make necessary arrangements. Students must present appropriate verification from Student Disability Services during the instructor's office hours. Please note that instructors are not allowed to provide classroom accommodation to a student until appropriate verification from Student Disability Services has been provided, and the student contacts the instructor requesting a meeting. For additional information, please contact Student Disability Services office in 335 West Hall or call 806-742-2405. Additional information may also be found in TTU O.P. 34.22.

Student Disability Services verification must be presented to the instructor on or before the first day of class, Jan. 12th.

If Texas Tech University campus operations are required to change because of health concerns related to the COVID-19 pandemic, it is possible that this course will move to a fully online asynchronous delivery format. Should that be necessary, students will be advised of technical and/or equipment requirements of a microphone and webcam, including remote proctoring software.

Absence Due to Religious Observance.

A student who is absent from classes for the observance of a religious holy day, according to the legal definition, will be allowed to take an examination or complete an assignment scheduled for that day within a reasonable time after the absence if, not later than the 15th day after the first day of the semester, the student has notified the instructor of each scheduled class that the student will be absent for a religious holy day. This notification will be in writing and will be delivered by the student personally to the instructor of each class, with receipt of the notification acknowledged and dated by the instructor, or by certified mail, return receipt requested, addressed to the instructor of each class. A student who is excused under this policy must not be penalized for the absence, but the instructor may appropriately respond if the student fails to satisfactorily complete the assignment.

Absence due to Officially Approved Trips. The Texas Tech University Catalog states that the person responsible for a student missing class due to a trip should notify the instructor of the departure and return schedule in advance of the trip. The student may not be penalized and is responsible for the material missed.

Illness and Death Notification and Absences. Whether an absence is excused or unexcused is determined solely by the instructor with the exception of absences due to religious observance and officially approved trips described above. The Center for Campus Life will notify faculty, at the student's request, when a student is absent for four consecutive days with appropriate verification of a health related emergency. This notification does not excuse the student from class, it is provided as a courtesy. The service is explained as follows and can be found on the Center for Campus Life web site at: <http://www.depts.ttu.edu/centerforcampuslife/>.

The Center for Campus Life is responsible for notifying the campus community of student illnesses, immediate family deaths and/or student death. Generally, in cases of student illness or immediate family deaths, the notification to the appropriate campus community members occur when a student is absent from class for four (4) consecutive days with appropriate verification. It is always the student's responsibility for missed class assignments and/or course work during their absence. The student is encouraged to contact the faculty member immediately regarding the absences and to provide verification afterwards. The notification from the Center for Campus Life does not excuse a student from class, assignments, and/or any other course requirements. The notification is provided as a courtesy.

Department Academic Integrity Policy

Adherence to the highest standards of academic honesty is required, with academic integrity a requirement. (See <https://www.depts.ttu.edu/studentconduct/academicinteg.php> for TTU's statement of academic integrity.) The faculty member in whose class academic dishonesty allegedly occurs will report the student(s) involved with the act of academic misconduct to the Office of Student Conduct using the Academic Integrity Incident Report Form. All written assignments must be completed independently and individually, unless specified otherwise by the instructor. Any attempt by students to present as their own any work they have not completed themselves is regarded by the faculty as a serious offense and renders the student liable to serious consequences, including possible removal from the program, and possible probation, suspension or expulsion from the University. Upon investigation and adjudication by the Office of Student Conduct, a referred student who is found responsible for a policy violation will be subject to the following outcomes. If plagiarism or another act of academic dishonesty is found to occur in any departmental course, students will receive a zero on that assignment. If a student cheats on an exam or allows another student to cheat from his or her exam or other graded assignment, each student found responsible for academic dishonesty will receive a zero on that exam or other graded assignment. No materials such as a smartphone or smartwatch are allowed during an exam. Any use of a smartphone during an exam (for any reason) is considered a violation. If academic dishonesty occurs a second time in the same course the student will be referred to the Office of Student Conduct for academic dishonesty for further disciplinary action. If the Office of Student Conduct determines the student is responsible for the violation, the student will receive an F in the course.

Academic Integrity and Student Conduct

Responsible citizenship among college students includes honesty and integrity in class work; regard for the rights of others; and respect for local, state, and federal laws as well as campus standards. Specific standards concerning the rights and responsibilities of students and registered student organizations at Texas Tech are contained in the Code of Student Conduct and Student Handbook. Students are expected to become thoroughly familiar with and abide by these standards. The Code of Student Conduct and Student Handbook may be obtained from the Office of Student Judicial Programs, Student Union, (806) 742-1714, or online at www.studentaffairs.ttu.edu or Office of Student Conduct.

Academic Integrity

It is the aim of the faculty of Texas Tech University to foster a spirit of complete honesty and a high standard of integrity. The attempt of students to present as their own any work that they have not honestly performed is regarded by the faculty and administration as a serious offense and renders the offenders liable to serious consequences, possibly suspension. The instructor in a course is responsible for initiating action for dishonesty or plagiarism that occurs in his or her class. In cases of convincing evidence of or admitted academic dishonesty or plagiarism, an instructor should take appropriate action. Before taking such action, however, the instructor should attempt to discuss the matter with the student. If cheating is suspected on a final exam, the instructor should not submit a grade until a reasonable attempt can be made to contact the student, preferably within one month after the end of the semester. See the section on “Academic Conduct” in the Code of Student Conduct for details of this policy.

Academic Misconduct

Scholastic dishonesty includes, but is not limited to, cheating, plagiarism, collusion, falsifying academic records, misrepresenting facts, and any act designed to give unfair academic advantage to the student (such as, but not limited to, submission of essentially the same written assignment for two courses without the prior permission of the instructor) or the attempt to commit such an act.

Cheating includes, but is not limited to, the following:

1. Copying from another student’s test paper.
2. Using materials during a test that have not been authorized by the person giving the test.
3. Failing to comply with instructions given by the person administering the test.
4. Possessing materials during a test that are not authorized by the person giving the test, such as class notes or specifically designed “crib notes.” The presence of textbooks constitutes a violation only if they have been specifically prohibited by the person administering the test.
5. Possessing, using, buying, stealing, transporting, or soliciting in whole or part the contents of an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program.
6. Collaborating with or seeking aid or receiving assistance from another student or individual during a test or in conjunction with an assignment without authority.
7. Discussing the contents of an examination with another student who will take the examination.
8. Divulging the contents of an examination, for the purpose of preserving questions for use by another, when the instructor has designated that the examination is not to be removed from the examination room or not to be returned to or kept by the student.
9. Substituting for another person, or permitting another person to substitute for oneself to take a course, a test, or any course related assignment.
10. Paying or offering money or other valuable thing to, or coercing another person to obtain an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program, or information about an unadministered test, test key, homework solution, or computer program.
11. Falsifying research data, laboratory reports, and/or other academic work offered for credit.
12. Taking, keeping, misplacing, or damaging the property of the university, or of another, if the student knows or reasonably should know that an unfair academic advantage would be gained by such conduct.

Plagiarism includes, but is not limited to, the appropriation of, buying, receiving as a gift, or obtaining by any means material that is attributable in whole or in part to another source, including words, ideas, illustrations, structure, computer code, other expression and media, and presenting that material as one’s own academic work being offered for credit. Any student who fails to give credit for quotations or for an essentially identical expression of material taken from books, encyclopedias, magazines, Internet documents, reference works or from the themes, reports, or other writings of a fellow student is guilty of plagiarism.

Collusion includes, but is not limited to, the unauthorized collaboration with another person in preparing academic assignments offered for credit or collaboration with another person to commit a violation of any section of the rules on scholastic dishonesty.

Falsifying academic records includes, but is not limited to, altering or assisting in the altering of any official record of the university, and/or submitting false information or omitting requested information that is required for or related to any academic record of the university. Academic records include, but are not limited to, applications for admission, the awarding of a degree, grade reports, test papers, registration materials, grade change forms, and reporting forms used by the Office of the Registrar. A former student who engages in such conduct is subject to a bar against readmission, revocation of a degree, and withdrawal of a diploma.

Misrepresenting facts to the university or an agent of the university includes, but is not limited to, providing false grades or resumes; providing false or misleading information in an effort to receive a postponement or an extension on a test, quiz, or other assignment for the purpose of obtaining an academic or financial benefit for oneself or another individual; or providing false or misleading information in an effort to injure another student academically or financially.

Civility in the Classroom is expected that all students in the class will treat fellow classmates, the professor, the assistant, and guests in the classroom with respect. Respect includes, but is not limited to, arriving to class on time, not making unnecessary noise or speaking when others are speaking, attending to those who are speaking, and not engaging in disruptive behaviors. A student lacking civility will be asked to leave the classroom. If the behavior continues, the students will be asked not to return to the classroom.

Students with Disabilities ADA Statement

Any student who because of a disability may require special arrangements in order to meet course requirements should contact the instructor as soon as possible to make any necessary accommodations. Student should present appropriate verification from AccessTECH. No requirement exists that accommodations be made prior to completion of this approved university procedure. Students with disabilities are encouraged to use AccessTECH which publishes a Desk Reference for Faculty and Staff that is very helpful. You may call the AccessTECH Office at 742-2092 to request a copy.

The Ombudsman for Students is available to assist students with any conflict or problem that has to do with being a student at Texas Tech University. You may visit the Ombudsman in 237 Student Union Building or call 742-SAFE.
